Saturday
10 March
1860

Dear Maria,

I send out your bonnet by Baker, who I shall see at the station here & direct
him to give the band box to Peter.
At any rate to be sure that it is

Mo. A.G. 2.30.45

delivered to Ted last night. Mary was so earnest to have me stay, that I thought I would. I called her very poorly. She went to Mary B's party - rode - It the party went off well. I am going to see Mr B. Robbins this afternoon. Annie looked very pretty in her grey silk. She went to the Papanti Ball

I wore her pink silk. She longs to get home to Weymouth, but I
forbid her to speak
She has brought Hawthornes new book. to select herself with to morrow
I shall come
monday - tell Ann
to collect all the clothes for the wash
for it will be a small

one - tell her to change all the
sheets, put in a night
gown of mine behind
the bathing room door I have her
brown calico washed.
I have not been to the office yet.

ever yours Dr.

you can be carried
up to North B. on monday. there is a 9 o'clock train, ask
Stevens about it

MS. A.S. 2, 30.45